CONSTRUCTION

New Hire

Jesse Mangan

Pacific Building Group is pleased to welcome Jesse Mangan as its new CFO. In his role, he oversees the company's financial wellbeing, risk, and strategic growth. Jesse's dedication to providing accurate results and a long-term vision will translate to clear projections and cost savings for PBG's partners, developers and owners. Prior, Jesse was Project Controller at Balfour Beatty Infrastructure and Controller/VP of Finance at Vadhais Corporation. The University of Portland alumnus started as a project business manager in the field and has always loved watching projects come to fruition, ever-increasing his appetite for construction finance.

HEALTHCARE

Promotion

Laurel Moyer MD, MPH

Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego recently promoted Laurel Moyer, MD, MPH, to Vice President, Chief Quality and Safety Officer. Most recently, she served as Associate Chief Quality and Safety Officer at Rady Children's. She has been a practicing neonatologist and the Director of Quality for the Division of Neonatology since arriving in San Diego six years ago. Dr. Moyer served as Director of the Children's Specialists of San Diego Quality Incentive Program, and Co-Director for the Quality Improvement Leaders program. She is also a regional champion for Children's Hospitals' Solutions for Patient Safety, a network of more than 145 children's hospitals that work together to eliminate serious patient harm across all children's hospitals.

Dr. Moyer completed her fellowship in Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine and her Master of Public Health at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She completed her residency in pediatrics at the UMass Chan Medical School in Worcester, Massachusetts and received her medical degree from the Robert Lamer College of Medicine at the University of Vermont in Burlington. Please join us in congratulating Dr. Moyer on this well-deserved promotion.

HEALTHCARE

Promotion

Keri Carstairs MD, MBA

Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego recently promoted Keri Carstairs, MD, MBA, to Vice President of Network Operations and Clinical Integration. She also serves as Chief Population Health Officer. In her role, Dr. Carstairs will lead efforts with our network partners, state and federal agencies, health plans and other community-based organizations to provide the best care possible to the children of San Diego and beyond.

Dr. Carstairs joined Rady Children's in 2011 in the Emergency Medicine Division where she quickly demonstrated her leadership as Chief of the Emergency Medicine Division. Her keen interest in population health, health equity and clinical integration led her to become the first Chief Population Health Officer at Rady Children's in August 2020.

Before joining Rady Children's, Dr. Carstairs served for 13 years in the U.S. Navy. She is dual board-certified in emergency medicine and pediatric emergency medicine. Dr. Carstairs earned her medical degree from Tulane University School of Medicine in New Orleans, La. and a Healthcare Executive Master of Business Administration at the University of Colorado Denver School of Business. Please join us in congratulating Dr. Carstairs on this well-deserved promotion.
