Vincent Affinito

Vincent Affinito joins Capital One as Senior Relationship Manager of Business Banking. In this role, Vincent will act as a trusted advisor to business owners in San Diego and beyond, offering Capital One's full suite of business banking solutions, including owner occupied commercial real estate financing, working capital, equipment loans, business acquisition, SBA 504 and 7A financing options, Common Interest Realty Association loans (for HOAs/ Condo Associations), escrow products for qualified intermediaries and holders of 3rd party funds, healthcare lending, treasury management and depository services, and more. Originally from Walnut Creek, CA, Vincent has called San Diego home since 2012 and is motivated to create meaningful relationships with business owners in the community, and provide them with the counsel and lending products they need to thrive. Vincent will be joining the San Diego chapter for C.A.I. and is looking forward to joining additional networks to stay connected in our communities. As a multi-generational banker and real estate enthusiast, Vincent brings more than 14 years of banking experience to Capital One, previously as a commercial banker at Banc of California and relationship manager at Citi.
