Douglas Wilson Companies

REAL ESTATE
New Hire

Stephen Walton

Douglas Wilson Companies (DWC), a national leader in specialized business, receivership, and real estate services, is pleased to announce the addition of Stephen Walton as chief marketing officer and vice president.

This new role for DWC enables the company to focus on long-term strategic planning and partnerships across its business channels. These include receivership and fiduciary services, real estate development, and legacy asset and real estate advisory services. Walton's extensive experience in corporate marketing and development directly supports DWC's marketing and growth initiatives.

"We are thrilled to welcome Steve to our executive leadership team," said DWC CEO and Chairman Douglas Wilson. "His impressive track record in marketing and new business development across major business sectors will enable DWC to continue on the company's growth trajectory, including expansion in both existing and new markets."

In his role as chief marketing officer and vice president for DWC, Walton is responsible for designing and leading the organization's corporate brand marketing and reputation, as well as community engagement, media relations, and business development.

"Steve Walton is a revenue enabler with a demonstrated ability to navigate highly regulated and competitive markets. We are eager to work with Steve on achieving DWC's growth initiatives," said DWC President Michele Vives. "From our role as a trusted fiduciary to our position as a leader in real estate development and advisory services, we look forward to working with Steve on our plans and objectives so we may best serve our clients in today's dynamic market environment."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Alex Ulloa, Plumbing Manager

Same Day Heating, Cooling, and Plumbing is thrilled to announce the hiring of new Plumbing Manager, Alex Ulloa. Alex is a highly experienced plumbing professional with over 35 years of industry expertise in all areas of plumbing including installation, repair, maintenance and inspection of plumbing systems for commercial and residential properties. Beginning his career as a technician, honing his skills and knowledge through hands-on work in the field, Alex progressed to supervisory and management roles, taking charge of complex plumbing projects and leading teams of professionals to success. Alex brings with him a commitment to delivering exceptional results for clients and a wealth of knowledge and expertise to every project.

Mike McDonnell, Service Manager

We are also pleased to announce the promotion of Mike McDonnell to the position of Service Manager. Mike McDonnell is an experienced HVAC service manager with a passion for delivering top-notch customer service and maintaining a high level of technical expertise in his field. With over 8 years of experience as an HVAC service technician, Mike has developed a deep understanding of the complexities involved in heating, ventilation, and air conditioning systems. Throughout his career, he has honed his skills in troubleshooting, diagnosing, and repairing a wide range of HVAC issues, from basic maintenance tasks to complex system overhauls. Mike's dedication to quality service has earned him a reputation as a trusted and reliable HVAC expert, and he takes pride in ensuring that every job is completed to the highest standards of excellence. With his extensive knowledge of the industry and his commitment to customer satisfaction, Mike is a valuable asset to any HVAC service team.

Ruben Nava, Sales Manager

We are excited to also announce the elevation of Ruben Nava to the position of Sales Manager. Ruben is an accomplished, results-driven sales professional with over 24 years of progressive sales experience. His technical knowledge and hands-on experience with the installation and maintenance of HVAC systems was attained as an Install Technician before transitioning into the role as a Design Technician. With his deep understanding of both the technical and customer-facing aspects of the HVAC industry, Ruben now serves as Sales Manager with Same Day Heating Cooling & Plumbing, leading a team of Design Technicians to deliver exceptional service and results. His strong leadership skills, coupled with his technical expertise and customer focus, make him a valuable asset to the team.

Family-owned Same Day Heating, Cooling, and Plumbing offers fast, reliable AC repair and installation services, heater repair & installation, and now plumbing services, in San Diego County. Our promise to you is always that if we do not fix your system the SAME DAY we arrive... you DON'T pay the service fee. For more information, visit www.samedaysd.com.
