PETTIT KOHN

PETTIT KOHN INGRASSIA LUTZ & DOLIN

Christine Y. Clark, Esq.

Pettit Kohn Ingrassia Lutz & Dolin PC, a leading trial and civil litigation firm, is pleased to announce that Christine Y. Clark has been promoted to Shareholder. Christine continues the tradition of superior client service, legal professionalism, and litigation management that are hallmarks of Pettit Kohn's legal excellence. "Christine is an exceptional attorney. Through her dedication and hard work, she has fully earned and deserves the opportunity to fulfill a broader leadership role with the firm. She consistently demonstrates her unwavering commitments to supporting the foundational goals of the firm – providing outstanding client service and exceptional work product, all while contributing meaningfully to a supportive workplace environment based on teamwork and clear communication," said Drew Kohn, CEO and one of Pettit Kohn's founding Shareholders. "I'm thrilled for her, excited to congratulate Christine as she steps into her new role, and am looking forward to the next chapters of her contributions to the continued support of our clients and success of our firm." Christine is an experienced litigator in the firm's San Diego office. She handles a wide range of employment matters, focusing on defending employers in all aspects of employment litigation. She also represents corporate clients against claims involving premises liability and product liability. Christine has garnered recognition in the San Diego and Southern California legal community. She has been recognized among the San Diego Super Lawyers Rising Stars and by Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch for her work in Labor & Employment Litigation and Commercial Litigation.

MyPoint Credit Union

Adriana Brunner

MyPoint Credit Union is excited to share the news of Adriana Brunner's promotion to Vice President of Community and Business Development. This marks a significant moment, making Brunner the first Latina to hold a Vice President title at MyPoint since its inception in 1948.

Brunner's promotion underscores her impactful work in strengthening ties within the community. Her commitment to the San Diego community is evident in her role, where she helps members reach their financial goals and helps them do more of what they love. Joining MyPoint in 2007, Brunner has led a strong business development team engaged in community outreach, financial education, and leaving a lasting impact.

In addition to her role at MyPoint, Brunner serves on the boards of 11 local San Diego organizations, actively collaborating with the business community through education and leadership.

As Vice President, Adriana now oversees the development and execution of strategies for San Diego's emerging, diverse, and business communities. Her leadership exemplifies a dedication to social and economic equity, positioning MyPoint Credit Union as an inspiration for opportunity and progress.
